I. W. Brown of Pawnee county came to Nemaha last Saturday and visited his brother, R. I. Brown, until Monday. He took little Tommy McCain home with him and Tommy will probably make his home with Mr. Brown—that at least is the present intention. He will have a good home.

There are fifty million head of cattle in the United States, of which number from fifteen to twenty million are dairy cows. If every one of our readers would Biggle Cow Book, published at 50 cents by the Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, they could greatly increase the product from every cow in their herd.

The best program ever given here is being prepared for the old settlers picnic, August 18th. There will be addresses by Congressman Burkett, Hon. G. W. Berge and others, music by a ladies quartette, male quartette and others, recitations, etc., etc. It will be the best and biggest reunion we have ever had.

Strang as it may seem, Bryan concedes that the administration at Washington probably knows more about the Chinese troubles than he does, and therefore he refrains from telling what should be done and what terrible crimes the republican party and Mark Hanna commit by not doing what he says. It is a surprise to all.

Morg Frazier died at his home in Nemaha Monday, July 9, 1900, after suffering for two weeks with appendicitis.

John Morgan Frazier was born in Frankton, Madison county, Indiana, February 16, 1853. On October 20, 1877, he was married to Miss Julia Worrel. In 1882 they moved to Nemaha and have made this their home since that time. He age was 47 years, months and 23 days at the time of his death. He leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters, five sisters and two brothers to mourn his loss.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. M. Darby, were held at the Methodist church at 10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, and the body laid away in the Nemaha cemetery.

LADIES, WHY DON'T YOU?

Editor of The Advertiser:

Is there anything at all that we can say or do to convince ALL your lady readers that we are actually giving away to every married lady in the United States who writes for it an elegant sterling silver-plated sugar shell like jewelers sell at 75c each? There is no "catch" about this offer. There is nothing to pay, nor any requirement to buy anything in order to secure this beautiful souvenir gift. It is our way of advertising the merits of Quaker Valley silverware. A copy of the Home-Furnisher, our own publication will also be sent free. Surely this beautifully sugar shell gift is worth asking for. Then it seems to us that we should hear from every married lady who reads your paper. Quaker Valley Mfg. Co., Morgan and Harrison Sts., Chicago

Blank deeds, chattel mortgages, farm leases, etc., for sale at this office.

The old settlers association want it distinctly understood that there is to be no political speaking at the reunion this year. If a speaker cannot say anything without talking politics he is not wanted. It is not a political organization and these reunions are not held for the purpose of giving politicians an opportunity to air grievances or advance the interests of their party.

W. W. Keeling guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the coughs following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by Keeling.

Biggle Berry Book, being No. 2 of The Biggle Books, is all about berries. A whole encyclopedia of berry lore, boiled down after the manner of Farm Journal. Tells about varieties, about planting, growing, mulching, cultivating, picking and marketing. It gives practical pointers from the pens of scores of leading berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has colored representations of berries, true to size and color; thirty-three portraits of practical berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has other illustrations, handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.00.

The old settlers annual reunion will be held at Nemaha on Saturday, August 18th.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.

Mr. W. S. Whedon cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by Keeling

What is a Miracle?

"The marvellous cure of Mrs. Rena J. Stout of consumption has created intense excitement in Cammack, Ind.," writes Marion Stuart, a leading druggist of Muncie, Ind. She only weighed 90 pounds when her doctor in Yorktown said she must soon die. Then she began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and gained 37 pounds in weight and was completely cured." It has cured thousands of hopeless cases, and is positively guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Keeling's drug store.

The Family Described.

A Savannah sportsman who recently went on a fishing trip up the Savannah river, tells a story of an old darky whom he saw on the bank of the stream. To engage the old man in conversation just for fun the sportsman called out:

"Whose place is this, old man?"

"Hit Mr. Swinnon place," was the reply.

"Good big place, isn't it?"

"Yassur, purty big place."

"Has Mr. Swinnon any children?"

"Yassir," was the answer; "he got four head ob daughter, but he ain't got no son."—Savannah News.
